- e. reviewing the processes for ensuring and monitoring compliance with all laws, regulations and other requirements relating to the external reporting of financial and non-financial information.

2.3. Other responsibilities

The other responsibilities of the Committee are:

- a. assessing and recommending to the Board for adoption the scope, cover and cost of insurance, including insurance relating to directors and officer's liability, company reimbursement and professional indemnity;
- b. if it considers appropriate, investigating any complaint or allegation made to it; and
- c. any other responsibilities as determined by the Board from time to time.

3. Membership

3.1. Composition and size

The Committee is appointed by the Board and will consist of at least three members, a majority of which must be non-executive directors. The Board will use its reasonable endeavours to appoint a majority of independent directors to the Committee. The Company will disclose the members of the Committee.

Each member of the Committee must be able to read and understand financial statements. Each member of the Committee should have an understanding of the industry in which the Company operates. Each member is expected to possess adequate regulatory and industry knowledge to carry out his or her responsibilities as a member of the Committee. Each member must be free from any interest, business or other relationship which, in the opinion of the Board, could, or could reasonably be perceived to, materially interfere with the exercise of his or her independent judgment as a member of the Committee.

3.2. Chairman

The chairman of the Committee must not be the chairman of the Board and must be an independent non-executive director. If, for a particular Committee meeting, the Committee chairman is not present within 10 minutes of the nominated starting time of the meeting, the Committee may elect a chairman for the meeting.

3.3. Secretary

The company secretary is the secretary of the Committee.

4. Committee meetings and process

4.1. Meetings

Meetings and proceedings of the Committee are governed by the provisions in the Company's constitution regulating meetings and proceedings of the Board and committees of the Board in so far as they are applicable and not inconsistent with this charter.

Committee members may attend meetings in person or by electronic means.

4.2. Frequency and calling of meetings

The Committee will meet as frequently as required to perform its functions and at least annually.

The chairman must call a meeting of the Committee if requested by any member of the Committee. The Company will disclose in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the Committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings.

In cases where circumstances make it impractical to convene and hold a meeting, the Committee may pass resolutions by each member signing a circular resolution.

4.3. Quorum

Two members constitute a quorum for meetings of the Committee.

4.4. Attendance by officers and advisers

The Committee chairman may invite any other directors of the Company who are not members of the Committee and external advisers to attend meetings of the Committee.

4.5. Notice, agenda and documents

Unless otherwise agreed or considered necessary by the chairman, notice of each meeting confirming the venue, date and time together with an agenda of items to be discussed and supporting documentation, will be circulated by the secretary to each Committee member and any other individual invited to attend, not less than seven days before the meeting.

4.6. Minutes

The secretary will keep minute books to record the proceedings and resolutions of Committee meetings, including the names of those present.

The chairman of the Committee, or delegate, will report to the Board after each Committee meeting. Minutes of Committee meetings will be included in the papers for the next Board meeting after each Committee meeting.

The Committee must refer any matter of significant importance to the Board for its consideration and attention.

4.7. Access to information and advisers

The Committee has direct and unlimited access to all resources necessary to discharge its duties and responsibilities, including engaging counsel or other experts as it considers appropriate. This may include requesting management or external consultants to provide information to the Committee.

The Committee also has the authority to conduct or direct any investigation required to fulfil its responsibilities.

5. Delegation

The Committee may delegate any of its powers and responsibilities as the Committee thinks appropriate for the administration of director, senior executive and employee share, option or other plans, to senior management.

6. Committee's performance evaluation

The Company Secretary will facilitate a review of the performance of the Committee annually in accordance with processes established by the Board and will report the findings of that review to the Committee and the Board.

The performance evaluation will have regard to, amongst other matters, the extent to which the Committee has met its responsibilities in terms of this charter.

Committee members must be available to meet with external bodies if requested to do so in accordance with relevant laws, regulations or prudential standards.

7. Review and publication of the charter

The Committee will review this charter annually to keep it up to date and consistent with the Committee's authority, objectives and responsibilities and report to the Board any changes it considers should be made. This charter may be amended by resolution of the Board.

This charter will be made available on the Company's website and the key features will be published in the Company's annual report.

Approved by the Board on 10 August 2017.
